

Section 3. Special meetings shall be called by the President when necessary. It shall be the joint responsibility of all officers and members to contact as many members as is possible.

ARTICLE X RUNNING GROUNDS

1. No person who is not a member of this club shall be permitted to train his dogs on the training area. Exception to this rule may be made only upon vote of the membership at a regular meeting. If such special permission is given for any reason, it shall be given in writing and signed by the President and Secretary.
2. A member may take a person not a member on the grounds to run dogs belonging to the non member only twice.
3. No member of the club is permitted to train dogs belonging to non-members on the running grounds. However, a member interested in the purchase of a dog of unknown quality may try the dog on the running grounds.
4. It shall be the duty of each and every member to enforce this ruling and to bar persons not members from using the training areas.

ARTICLE XI STANDING AND SPECIAL COMMITTEES

Section 1. No member shall be named to any committee without his knowledge and consent, thereby insuring that he is both able and willing to participate in the activities of the committee to which he has been appointed.

Section 2. Should any committee member later find that he is either not able or not willing to share the responsibilities of that committee, he should request that another member be named to replace him.

ARTICLE XII BALLOTS

Section 1. Voting upon any matter shall be by voice vote or by the show of hands, at the option of the President. Should a question be raised as to the accuracy of the voice vote, then the President shall call for a show of hands.

Section 2. Voting for officers shall be by written ballot. The President shall have the right to vote only in case of a tie ballot; his vote is to break the tie.

Section 3. Upon any special issue where the secrecy of the ballot is desirable for the good of the club, any member can request a secret ballot. If such a request is made, the President shall order a secret ballot.
